

⊙ If you' ve lost your property

- Report it to the nearest police station, police box, or residential police box.
You can also report it online
- If you' ve lost your property in a train carriage, a rail station, or a department store, report it to a janitor, an information center, or the offices that manage those buildings.
- If you' ve lost a mobile phone, a credit card or cash card, you should contact the mobile phone company, the bank or the credit card company.
- You can access the police online database of lost items.
- In case Police receive your lose property, it shall keep it for 3 months.
- If you receive your lost property, contact the police station that has your lost property.