

The Organization of Aomori Prefectural Police

The Aomori Prefectural Police personnel secure the safety of approximately 1.1million residents of Aomori Prefecture. The total number of Aomori Prefectural Police personnel is approximately 2700.

The police personnel work together for prevention and control crime.

To protect safety and secure Aomori Prefecture, your understanding and cooperation is requested.

Structure of Aomori Prefectural Police

Aomori Prefectural Police	Police Administration Department	General Affairs Division Public Relations Division Police Administration Division Education and Training Division Finance Division Facility Division Detention Administration Division Inspection Division	This department is in charge of planning, recruiting, personnel management, education, training, public relation activity and citizen's counseling
	General Affairs Department	General Office Work Promotion Division Welfare Division Information Management Division	This department is in charge of welfare programs and management of information security
	Community Safety Department	Community Safety Planning Division Personal Safety Support Division Community Division Communication Command Division Safety Division Cybercrime Control Division	This department is in charge of providing crime prevention guidance to citizen's family and company, fight against stalker or domestic violence, prevent juvenile delinquency, control moral offenses or crime relating cybercrime.
	Criminal Investigation Department	Investigative Planning Division First Criminal Investigation Division Second Criminal Investigation Division Criminal Investigation Support Analysis Division Identification Division Criminal Investigation Laboratory Mobile Investigation Unit	This department is in charge of felonious crimes such as murder, robbery, and theft, frauds, crimes committed by gang members and controlling drugs and firearms.
	Traffic Department	Traffic Planning Division Traffic Regulation Division Traffic Enforcement Division Driver's License Division Traffic Mobile Unit Expressway Traffic Police Unit	This department is to promote traffic safety education, control traffic violations, investigate and analyze traffic accident and incident for elimination victims by traffic accident.
	Security Department	First Security Division Second Security Division Imperial Protection Division Foreign Affairs Division Riot Police Unit	This department is in charge of disaster relief operations in the event of any natural or urban disasters, to protect domestic or foreign dignitaries, suppression of terrorist
	Police Academy
17 Police Stations			